

GREENWOOD PARK AND RECREATION
CITY OF GREENWOOD

POLICY FOR USE OF PARK FACILITIES:

- Park facility may be used by residents or non-residents.
- Prior to the event, a request to use the facility shall be made in writing and addressed to the Park & Recreation Committee, C/O City Hall, City of Greenwood, asking permission to use the facilities, stating the nature of the use, and by signing this form.
- The park requests will be granted on a first come-first serve basis.
- There is a $25.00 charge for the use of the park facilities.
- There will be no use of the concession stand or ballfield lights without the prior approval of the Greenwood Softball Association, and there will be a fee charged if permission is granted.
- The undersign agrees and understands that by signing this form, the undersigned shall be liable for and responsible for any and all damages done to the park facilities, grounds and restrooms by the members of the undersigned's group. The undersigned will be notified of any damages and agrees to forthwith pay said damages to the City Clerk, C/O City Hall, City of Greenwood, Greenwood, Wisconsin.
- The City of Greenwood and the Greenwood Softball Association will not be liable for any injuries to persons using the park facilities, nor will they be responsible for any lost or broken items while the undersigned uses the facilities.
- The picnic tables located at the George Scherer Athletic Park are available for use by the public for special occasions, as long as their use does not interfere with any planned activities to be held at the park. A fee of $5.00 per table will be charged. Common Council may be asked to review the rental request and may choose to waive the rental fee, if applicable, at the next scheduled Greenwood Common Council meeting. Interested parties must request the use of the picnic tables from the City Clerk at City Hall, and the tables must be returned to the park in good condition within 48 hours after being taken from the park. If the picnic tables are damaged, the undersigned will be held responsible for the cost of repairing or replacing said picnic tables.
- A fee a $35.00 per day will be charged for the use of the sound system. If sound system is damaged, the undersigned will be held responsible for the cost of repairing or replacing.
